A198. TO DISCUSS THE OUTCOME OF A SITE VISIT TO THE PHILADELPHIA CEMETERY IN RELATION TO THE RECENT COLLAPSE OF THE BOUNDRY WALL AND TO DETERMINE A WAY FORWARD ON THE NECESSARY REPAIRS

The meeting was held at the site of the Philadelphia Cemetery where it was RECOMMENDED: that

- 1) Members agreed to remove the steel fence to allow entry to the collapsed wall, take to storage and not replace and that the wall should be rebuilt using single block at the back of the wall and faced with the existing limestone.
- 2) The lowest quotation be accepted in the sum of £1,550 and that a recommendation be forwarded to the Finance, Policy and General Purposes Committee requesting that the necessary funding be found within the existing budget, to note there is a remainder of £969 within the budget which will leave a remainder of £581 to be funded.
